1. Launching the re-enrollment procedure – Course registration

To re-enroll, go to your ADUM personal space (<https://www.adum.fr/UBFC>), using the same IDs as in the previous years.

Click on “I wish to declare my re-enrollment in XXth year of PhD thesis”, or on “Finalising my re-enrollment in XXth year of PhD thesis” if you have already started the procedure:

If you enroll in 4th year, you will also be offered the possibility to click on “I will be defending my thesis in the next 3 months”. You MUST re-enroll before starting the defence procedure if the defence date is close.

From the 3rd year, re-enrollment will be conditional on prior agreement of the thesis follow-up committee; please refer to the specific recommendations of each DS.

From the 4th year (if you defend your thesis after 31 December 2019), you will first have to file in a request for prolonging your thesis.

You must check all the tabs in your personal space, and update them if necessary > they all turn green ().

Then you can click on “I finalize the procedure”

Please note: The “Professional situation” and “Publications” tabs do not necessarily have to be filled to click on “I finalize the procedure”

Please ensure that your funding is still running, especially if you enroll in 4th year and beyond.

You will have to print the following documents from your personal space :

- the request form for doctoral degree enrollment/re-enrollment: you must sign it, and have your thesis supervisor and the Head of your research unit sign it
- the request form for prolonging your thesis (from the 4th year): you must sign it, and have your thesis supervisor and the Head of your research unit sign it
- the RGPD form: you must sign it
- the list of the documents to be enclosed with your file.

To help you with the procedure, the following document is also available in your personal space (and on the website of the UBFC Doctoral College):

- Enrollment / re-enrollment in doctoral studies: how to proceed

Then you must hand in the following documents at your DS, or send them by post:

- the request form for doctoral degree enrollment/re-enrollment
- the request form for prolonging your thesis (from the 4th year)
- the additional documents required by your DS
- the payment of your registration fees
- the RGPD form

If you are under a doctoral contract or if you wish to pay your fees in 3 installments, you must needs hand in your file at the DS before 30 September.

2. Verification and validation by the DS – Administrative registration

Once you have handed a hard copy of your file, the DS verifies, stabilises, and if necessary corrects the data you entered in ADUM.

If your file has to be substantially modified, the DS may choose to give you back the upper hand on your ADUM file for you to make the required modifications. In that case, you will have to make the corrections, print the forms again, have them signed again, and hand/send them to the DS again.

Once the file is complete and properly filled, the DS has its director sign the following forms:

- the request form for doctoral degree enrollment/re-enrollment
- the request form for prolonging the thesis (from the 4th year)

Then the DS transmits your file to the President of UBFC for him to sign it. He may grant you authorisation to enroll or not.

Once the President of UBFC has granted you authorisation to enroll, your file is validated in ADUM.

The DS (or the Bureau of Doctoral Studies if you carry out your thesis work at the university of Burgundy) proceeds to your permanent registration and issues your certificate of attendance and your UBFC pass.
